

My experience participating in the breast cancer research program was amazing. I enjoyed being a part of something that would one day help other women affected by breast cancer. To be able to be a voice personally meant so much to me.

Shayla Lee